

art connection

The first art hotel in India, Le Sutra translates ancient philosophies and myths into comfortable hospitality. This small boutique hotel is located at Pali Hill, Mumbai and comes equipped with a spacious art gallery and 16 rooms each themed around a character (Ravana, Ashoka or Buddha) or characteristic (sensuality, love, purification). ELLE loves the attention to each detail in each room – whether it's the bed, chair, flooring or bathroom. With a number of artists, designers, interior decorators and curators that have worked on this project, we must say this makes any holiday stay even more interesting.

Tariff: Rooms start from 8,500 per night
14 Union Park, Khar (W), Mumbai 52. Inquiries, (022) 26055473

cruising together

Soak in the sun on Apsara, the luxury cruiser from the Park Hotels. The floating hotel allows you to experience Kerala in a cosy eight-cabin cruiser. With state-of-the-art facilities on board, here's the best part: Each room has an LCD television, internet connectivity and a wide library of books, music and films. The fun doesn't end once you disembark – The Park on Vembanad Lake, a 10-room luxury resort will act as a docking station for the cruiser.

Tariff: Rs 90,000 for single occupancy for three nights/four days sailing, inclusive of taxes.

www.theparkhotels.com

great escapes globetrotter

THE HIP DESTINATION GUIDE

secret escape

Whisk yourself away from the hustle of urban city life within city limits – a weekend getaway beckons at the Renaissance Mumbai Hotel; a tranquil green oasis situated on the lush banks of Powai Lake. Relax and unwind with nature, amidst 15 acres of lush landscaped greenery. You can take in leisurely walks, enjoy a panoramic view of the lake, snooze by the pool or let the magic of ancient Ayurveda revive you at Club Renaissance Spa. Wholesome food, a warm ambience and attentive service will make the most of your personal downtime.

Tariff: Varies as per season

#2 & 3B, Near Chinmayanand Ashram, Powai, Mumbai 87.
www.renaissancemumbai.com

