

► jade WHAT'S NEW

SHERATON, PUNE

The Gitanjali Group recently launched JewelSouk, a multi-brand, multi-category lifestyle store chain that brings together all major jewellery brands under one roof, marking a new landmark in the Indian retail jewellery trade. This new format is being introduced at the International Terminal of Mumbai Airport and will subsequently be extended to other lifestyle and luxury department stores that are emerging in the metros and Tier II cities. This will include premier shopping destinations such as Walmart, Central, Spencers, Star Bazaar, Kapsons and leading stand alone departmental stores.

DR. ART+DESIGN

Chic and contemporary, Dr.Art+Design, brainchild of Mitali Bajaj, is the aesthetic design management studio conceived as a co-creative lab collaborating with innovative artistic talent on the premise that art is to be enjoyed by everyone. Blurring divisions between life, motion, art form, design and sculpture the talented team from the allied fields of arts conceptualize, manufacture and install engrossing and interactive public art works. Offices or buildings, museums or monuments, the panorama of design services extends from hotels, malls and offices to entire townships bringing to each a differentiating persona.

MARRIOTT INTERNATIONAL, CHINA

Marriott International, Inc. (NYSE: MAR) is further cementing its position as a leader in the hospitality sector in China with the signing of its 100th hotel – the 345-room JW Marriott Hotel Shenyang. Marriott International, which currently operates 56 hotels in China representing The Ritz-Carlton, JW Marriott, Marriott Hotels & Resorts, Renaissance, Courtyard and Marriott Executive Apartments brands, has a pipeline of confirmed projects totaling 44 hotels across its brand portfolio.

China is one of Marriott International's most important markets outside of the US, and the company is committed to long-term growth and robust expansion throughout the region. It expects to open a hotel in China at the rate of one per month during the next three years. ▮